1.1.

Helen: Hi Daniel! I saw that your dad drove you to school today. Is it always like that?

Daniel: No, I ride with my dad only on Fridays. From Monday to Thursday I go by bus.

Helen: But you came by bike yesterday.

Daniel: Yes I did. The weather was so beautiful that I didn't want to ride a bus.

Girl: Good morning, I would like to buy some tickets for the film which starts at 12 today.

Man: Certainly. How many tickets?

Girl: Well, I have four friends with me.

Man: So, five tickets. That'll be 15 £.

Girl: Here's the money – 20 £.

Man: And here's your 5 £ change. Enjoy the show!

1.3.

Jane: Hey Laura! Stop! Why are you running? Did you lose your dog?

Laura: Oh hi Jane! No, I went for a walk with him earlier today.

Jane: So, why are you in such a hurry?

Laura: I'm 15 minutes late for my karate training. My coach will be so angry!

Jane: Oh no! Well, at least the gym is just around the corner. Bye!

Ladies and gentleman, we are sorry to inform that the train to Gatwick Airport will be 55 minutes delayed because of the accident. Two buses will be waiting for passengers near the exit opposite platform three. Please show the driver your train ticket.

Zadanie 2.

Mark: Hi Anna. I saw you came to school by taxi today. Is your father a taxi driver?

Anna: No, he's a marketing director in a big company. He has a lot of work and two secretaries must help him! And your father – he is a police officer, isn't he?

Mark: No, he's a sailor. But my mother works as a police officer.

Anna: Wow! This is so cool! My mother was a secretary but I have a little baby brother so she is a housewife now.
